

The Minnesota Jump\$Tart Coalition brings together individuals and organizations to improve the personal financial literacy of Minnesota’s Youth.

During these unprecedented times, where distance learning is the new “normal” and the importance of financial literacy is felt by many, we have curated a list of resources that are available to educators and caregivers to continue to build the financial literacy of our youth.

Partner	Description	Find it here
Jump$Tart	A clearinghouse and online library of financial education resources for teachers, parents, caregivers, and anyone committed to financial smarts for students.	https://jumpstartclearinghouse.org
BestPrep	BestPrep’s mission is to prepare students with business, career, and financial literacy skills through hands-on experiences that inspire success in work and life. Some initial resources to explore: The Stock Market Game - online investing simulation that teaches students economics, business, financial literacy and critical thinking skills. https://bestprep.org/the-stock-market-game/ Financial Matters program – offers recorded presentations from volunteers in the business community that teach students about various financial literacy topics. https://bestprep.org/financial-matters/	https://bestprep.org
Credit Bureaus	In a joint action, the three national credit reporting agencies in the United States – Equifax, Experian and TransUnion announce they are offering free weekly credit reports to all Americans for the next year to help them protect their financial health during the sudden and unprecedented hardship caused by COVID-19.	www.experian.com www.transunion.com www.equifax.com
EconEdLink	EconEdLink provides a premier source of classroom-tested, Internet-based economic and personal finance lesson materials for K-12 teachers and their students. With over 435 lessons to choose from, teachers can use	https://www.econedlink.org/as many of the lessons as they would like and as often as they would like.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)	The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) Money Smart for Young People series consists of four free curriculum products. Each age-appropriate curriculum includes lesson plans for educators along with guides for parents and caregivers. Contact Melissa Holman for more information and assistance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Office: 763-531-0440 ext. 4938 • Cell: 612-499-2357 • Email: mholman@fdic.gov 	https://www.fdic.gov/consumers/consumer/moneysmart/young.html
Finance Your Future	Finance Your Future is an online platform to educate students of all ages on various financial literacy topics. This resource includes an instructional portal that provides tools for creating, sharing and tracking lessons.	https://finaceyourfuture.myfloridacfo.com/teacher.html
Financial Planning Association®	For general financial planning assistance, members of the Financial Planning Association® (FPA®) are available to offer pro bono assistance to those in need of addressing all kinds of money matters with no strings attached.	https://www.fpamn.org/consumers/pro-bono-outreach/
Junior Achievement	JA gives kids a sense of purpose and belief in themselves, empowering them to envision a successful future.	https://www.jaum.org
Minnesota Council on Economic Education (MCEE)	MCEE is here to support teachers during the pandemic who are now engaged in distance learning, with resources to help teachers learn to do distance learning, links to K-12 Learning Management Systems to facilitate delivery, and economics, personal finance and entrepreneurship curricular content. Resources included on our website will be updated on an ongoing basis, so be sure to check back periodically.	https://www.mcee.uconn.edu/teachers/distance-learning-resources
Minnesota Department of Commerce	The Minnesota Commerce Department oversees more than 20 regulated industries, ensuring that Minnesota businesses are strong and Minnesota consumers are protected. Our mission is to protect the public interest, advocate for Minnesota consumers, ensure a strong, competitive and fair marketplace, strengthen the state's economic future; and serve as a trusted public resource for consumers and businesses. April is Financial Capability Month: https://mn.gov/commerce/consumers/your-money/future/ COVID-19 Resources:	https://mn.gov/commerce/

	https://mn.gov/commerce/consumers/covid-19/
MoneySKILL	MoneySKILL is an online course for high-school and college students that covers a variety of personal finance content. Students can access modules in the classroom, at home, or wherever they have access to internet.	https://afsaef.org/
National Council for Economic Education (NCEE)	The Council for Economic Education's (CEE's) mission is to equip K-12 students with the tools and knowledge of personal finance and economics so that they can make better decisions for themselves, their families, and their communities.	https://www.councilforeconed.org
National Endowment for Financial Education (NEFE)	Whether you are a teacher or college professor, financial planning professional, social service expert or community volunteer, we have resources for teaching students about money management to help you facilitate financial education in your classroom and community, and elevate your success for making change.	https://www.nefe.org/education/school-based/default.aspx
Next Gen Personal Finance	A non-profit organization that partners with teachers by sharing timely and relevant curricular resources, providing effective professional development, and advocating to increase access to financial education. Some initial resources to explore: Arcade Games No-tech resources Blog post: Ten practical tips for teaching remotely Check out online the professional development program by clicking on this link to our registration page for these free events.	www.ngpf.org
PwC's Earn Your Future® Digital Classroom	Earn Your Future Digital Classroom is a comprehensive financial literacy program designed for students in grades 3-12. Students engage with financial literacy concepts through innovative self-paced modules. Educators are supported with student assessment tools and educator and resource guides.	https://app.pwcf dnearnyourfuture.org/
University of MN Extension Family Development	We provide support to families and family-serving organizations in times of challenge and opportunity. Check out these video playlists which introduce budgeting and credit basics. Each is less than 10 minutes long! Credit: https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL-JlTnitjANF9U6kthDEIN62Sagy4Mysq	https://extension.umn.edu/families-and-youth

	Budgeting: https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL-llTnitjANF9U6kthDEIN62Sagy4Mysq
Various	Additional personal finance resources, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personal Finance Websites • 10 Personal Finance Apps for Young Adults • Technology in the Classroom: 8 Websites to Teach Financial Literacy • Turn-key lessons • Simulations • Video resources and hooks • What high-school students need now • Special education resources • Mobile applications for kids 	Contact MN Jump$tart at minnesota.jumpstart@gmail.com to request access to the full list of over 80 resources and websites.