

2024 Scholarship Awards.

Educator Application

Thank you for your interest in the Expedition Foundation's 2024 Scholarship Program.

Eligibility and Requirements

One $2,000 scholarship award will be given to an Expedition Credit Union member currently working in the field of education, including but not limited to teachers, administrators, and support personnel. You must have been working in the education field for a minimum of six months. You must be planning to attend an accredited institution for the purpose of professional development in the education field within one year of receiving the award. It is not necessary to demonstrate a financial need for the award.

Selection

The recipient will be selected for a $2,000 award by a Scholarship Committee to be named by the Foundation Board of Directors. Decisions of the Scholarship Committee are final and are not subject to review.

The applicants will be scored on the following areas:

- Up to 6 points each: Participation Details & Essay Response (located within application packet)
- Up to 5 points for two letters of recommendation from teachers, school counselors, supervisors, community leaders, etc. These items may be mailed separately to ensure confidentiality.
- Up to 3 points for your official transcripts; submit your official college transcripts.

How to Apply?

Applications can be found at www.expeditioncu.com/scholarships. The deadline for submitting applications is by midnight on February 2, 2024.
